

Bill Carr
Award Winning Humorist, Writer and
Communications Expert

Bill Carr is known as a multi-media artist, an actor, humorist, writer, speaker and social activist. For over twenty-five years, Bill has been helping groups from 12 to 1200 laugh at what's trivial while helping them think deeply about what counts. Bill helps people see their world in new and exciting ways. His unique blend of humour and insight inspires laughter and consideration, offering his audience a fresh perspective on what they face every day. At the root of all of Bill's work is the use of humour to help people reflect on their own innate human nature and understand who they are in a greater social context.

Throughout his career, Bill has performed on theatrical stages across Canada and internationally. He continues to be active in film with a recent principal role in "The Spinster" with Chelsea Perreti and as "Judge Campbell" in Season 2 of Diggstown on CBC. Bill is the recipient of two Atlantic Journalism awards for his satirical commentaries and is known for his work as a social commentator with CBC's The Journal and Midday, and was a weekly columnist with The Sunday Edition of the Daily News and the Chronicle Herald. Recently, Bill was cohost of "Shift for Brains" on the Sheldon Macleod Show on News 95.7FM Halifax.

Bill is an active volunteer in his community. He is an honorary Trustee of the IWK Health Centre and appears annually on the IWK Children's Hospital Telethon in partnership with CTV Atlantic. Bill also regularly serves as host & emcee for events in support of charitable causes and the arts such as Unicef, YMCA, Neptune Theatre, Mermaid Theatre of Nova Scotia, Symphony Nova Scotia, Hospice Halifax, Cumberland County Hospice Society, and Habitat For Humanity.
